

FATWA

Married couple studying at Darul Uloom.

Q. Can a married couple come and study at your school, meaning, is there a possibility? Insha-Allah, next year I am going to get married, I am 18 right now and I wanted to do the Aalim and Mufti course and my Insha-Allah wife-to-be wanted to do the Aliima course. Would there be such facilities for us?

A. Yes, a married couple can study at our institution. However they would have to make some arrangements to staying/renting a place outside of hostel.

And Allah knows best.
